

PEG-PEOPLE DESIGNS:

The 12 apostles:

Front facing. Notice 2 of the disciples and Jesus have magnets in their hands.

Side/back facing

I wrote (scribbled 😊) the Names of the Apostles on the underside

Jesus and Angels:

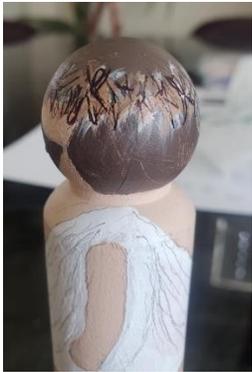

Front

Side/ Back - Notice the magnets in the Jesus for the cross. See details below.

Jesus on the Cross:

Details of Jesus with crown of thorns for on the cross.

It's important to line up the magnets and check for polarization of the magnets. I placed the ones in Jesus first, and then I laid Jesus where I thought would look best and drew lines/dots matching the magnets on the back of Jesus to the cross and then drilled. I checked the polarization of the magnets before I glued them into the cross.

Women:

Front – Notice Mary, sister to Lazareth, has a magnet

Side/back view

Names of some of the Women. Mary Magdalene is the one in red on the far left.

Religious leaders, Politicians and Soldiers:

Front AND Back

Side view to see the transition from one peg-person to the next. Front and Back

Names – I kept the religious leaders on one peg, and the political on the other peg.

The helmet can be made from a wooden disk. Very tricky and I broke many trying to create these. I would suggest cutting these out of cardboard, or foam.

Simon of Cyrene and his 2 sons:

Examples of my grandchildren:

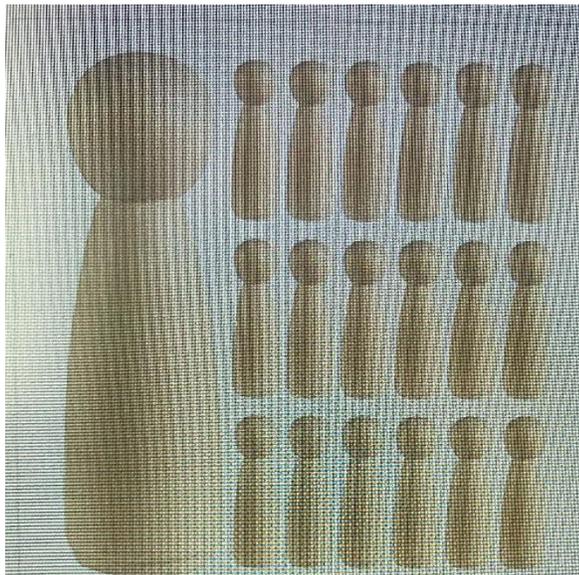

I made 7 sets of this Easter Holy Week Advent. My mom helped to paint all the figures and backdrops. She's amazing! Here is an example of how she prepared them to paint.

She painted flesh color for faces and necks. Then hair. Then she drew her design on the peg and painted it. Then she added flesh colored hands with the stem end of a paint brush. Don't forget to seal these figures in a clear acrylic coat. These figures are the perfect size for kids to hold and they love them! The people will get a lot of wear and tear!
